

ABSTRACT OF BACHELOR THESIS

Title of bachelor thesis: Occupational therapy in patients after the brain injury with neglect syndrome

This bachelor thesis is focused on summarizing the knowledge of the neglect syndrome, very interesting phenomenon accompanying brain injury. Thesis provides information about prevalence, etiopathogenesis, classification, clinical presentation and course of the disease. Special attention is devoted to diagnostic and therapeutic procedures and description of occupational therapist's intervention during the various phases of the disease.

The bachelor thesis is divided into theoretical and practical part. Theoretical part is a review of specialized literature and summarizes the informations about neglect syndrome. The practical part contains one casuistic of a patient with neglect syndrome and processed data from surveys. The questions in the survey are about the experiences of occupational therapists with incidence, diagnosis and therapy of neglect syndrome in Czech republic. The bachelor thesis concludes with a discussion about the results of survey and recommended procedure for diagnosis and treatment of neglect syndrome.

Key words:

Neglect syndrome, inattention, hemi-inattention occupation therapy, neglect syndrome therapy, neglect syndrome diagnostics