

Annotation:

Bachelor's dissertation discuss about eating disorders, its cause and medical treatment. Dissertation is divided into two parts, theoretical and practical. In the first part, we will get to know a complex information about eating disorders issue. In the second one, we will find a research based on quality interview method. Interviews are processed with casuistry and grounded theory.