

Abstrakt

Work is to briefly outline some of the specifics of the sentence relating to the main theme of the work, ie the output department Rýnovice. Readers should give an idea of the output separately as such, including an overview of where they are located. The main purpose of this work is to describe the output department but Rýnovice characterize it, and assess its purpose and meaning. Marginally work should mention the specialized departments in Rýnovice, so that underscore the importance of individual care for prisoners. Conclusion The work should address the follow-up care, specifically the Probation and Mediation Service, which should be reflected in its organizational anchorage, its activity and purpose, and the rights and obligations of their employees.

Keywords: prison, Rýnovice specialist departments, output departments, Probation and Mediation Service