Abstract

The theme of the bachelor thesis is a small village in the north Bohemia, which is called Budyně nad Ohří. The main focus will be taken on the castle with the same name.

In the opening chapters will be introduced the history of the village and then thesis will be focused on the own castle. On the cultural and historical development to the present appearance of the castle. In the ending chapters will be showed current using of this castle.