Archbishop Josef Beran

1946 – 1950

This work is about a well – known personality of the Czech Catholic Church – an archbishop Josef Beran from Prague. In the background of the rough 1946 – 1950s when the fortune of the Czechoslovak Church was decided, the work gives his coherent story – Josef Beran as a man a statesman and a pastor of the Catholic Church. It describes not only his personal conflict with communism power but also archbishop's pastoral and clerical activity. You can follow his critical opinions and attitudes towards important events at that time.
