

Abstrakt (in English)

The thesis deals with a complex analysis of Unamuno's The Tragic Sense of Life. The assumption for that is the investigation of the literary and intellectual framework from which the author's ideas were derived. For the analysis is used the cultural and historical context of the text, as well as its comparison with other Unamuno's literary and essayistic works, as these diffuse formally and conceptually.