

The study aims to describe comprehensively the lobbying strategy of student's nongovernmental organization called Inventura demokracie. The first part determinates basic terms. The second part examines the theory of lobbying, civil society, and state. The third part analyses lobbying of Inventura demokracie in practice. Finally, the fourth part brings us conclusions and recommendations.