

Abstract

Title: Methods of theoretical knowledge in basic scuba diving qualification.

Objectives: The main aim of this thesis is to make out a methodical steps for a teaching the theoretical lessons for the basic scuba diving qualification.

Methods: Methods, used in this thesis, were compilation and consequent summarization. Information were also gained by means of the informal consultations with the scuba diving professional instructors and through my own experience from a training process and expert lectures.

Results: A comprehensive material of basic steps for a teaching the theoretical part of the basic scuba diving qualification. This material is certained to the needs of the scuba diving instructors and attenders.

Keywords: Scuba diving, basic scuba diving qualification, CMAS, theoretical tuition, lesson.