

Abstract

The thesis topic will deal with the construction and historical development of the Renaissance chateau in Kostelec nad Černými Lesy, located in central Bohemia, especially in the 16th century. The thesis will also take account of the significant personalities and families, which made changes on the shape of the chateau and this thesis also focuses on the significant changes of the chateau.