

Nuremberg Trial and its Reactions in Czech Radio from 1946 to 1989

Topic of this bachelor thesis is unique and first of large military trials held in front of the International Military Tribunal against criminals of Nazi Germany, which had taken place at the turn of years 1945 and 1946 in Bavarian Nuremberg. First part of the thesis will focus on characteristics of the trial in historical, political and law context and it will follow up with its purport, process and results. In the second part, the main one, will thesis focus on reactions to the Nuremberg trials in Czechoslovakia from year 1946 to 1989. The anchor source for the thesis will be archive of Czech Radio Broadcast. Czech Radio Broadcast, as main and long lasting media, will allow readers to get a continual picture to this area of interest through years.