Abstract

This thesis entitled Wagner’s Bayreuth as a German National Socialist project? examines the causes and historical context that links the Bayreuth festival to Hitler’s National Socialist regime. The thesis focuses on problematic elements in the legacy of Wagner as a thinker and an artist and examines their development from Wagner’s death to 1945. The thesis is planned in several stages.