

Abstract

TITLE:

Comparing conditions for teaching athletics at the elementary schools in towns and villages in the Central Bohemian Region

ABSTRACT:

The aim of this thesis is to compare the teaching of athletics at the upper primary schools in large towns and villages located in the Central Bohemian. Next aim is to determine, through questionnaires, the education of PE teachers, the distribution of teaching athletics in the 10-month cycle, the most frequently taught athletic disciplines in PE classes and school participation in athletic competitions.

KEY WORDS:

Athletics, elementary school, pupils, material equipment, distribution of teaching athletics