Abstract
Edith Stein’s prayer: Edith Stein, a philosopher of Jewish origin with religious name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, a saint and patron of Europe, belongs to the most important personalities of the 20th century. In her eventful life she passed through various periods of her relationship to God and prayer, and finally she offered her life for peace and for her nation. Her prayers in all the periods of her life may be an encouragement for those who search for truth.
