Abstract

Title: The use of game principle in athletic training of children in primary school age.

Objectives: The aim of this thesis is to build a list of motoric games, that can be used in children's sports training, regardless of their specialization. Another objective is to classify games according to which physical ability mainly developed while verifying their popularity on the basis of the questionnaire survey.

Methods: The bachelor thesis is structured in the form of literary review and questionnaire survey.

Results: There are 47 literary sources in the thesis. Based on the literature and own assessment of each game was compiled basic selection of games that play an important role in athletic preparing of children. In sample of children was carried out the research of the popularity of the games. It can be used as feedback for the coach.

Keywords: Motoric game, athletic training of children, primary school age, questionnaire survey.