

The bachelor work named Family rituals deals with the rituals in general. It also deals with rituals that accompany human life and are part of the life of each family and the life of every human being. It is about rituals that accompany the birth of a child, childhood, adolescence, entry into marriage and the end of human life. It also focuses on family rituals in the form of celebrations such as birthdays, Easter or Christmas.