

ABSTRACT

Despite the fact there is a need to deal with marginalized groups within LGBT community, there are no comprehensive researches or studies which could provide sufficient information about Romany LGBT minority. In general we can say that the social discussion is only focused on the LGBT from the mainstream society and on seeing the differences between LGBT minority and mainstream society. Likewise it is in another countries. The aim of this bachelor thesis is to provide enough basic information about Romany LGBT community living in the Czech Republic. Also to be able to see the destinies of other people who are repeatedly keeping in touch with discrimination more deeply and to localise whether the relationship of Romany society is changing to the LGBT minority.
