

Annotation

Presented bachelor's thesis deals with analysis and evaluation of the early Iron Age archaeological finds, which were acquired during the archaeological rescue excavations of the Tišice site in 2003 and 2005. The aim is especially to describe the character of funeral rite and evaluation of artefacts and chronology of the burials. The continuity of burial activities at Tišice is also addressed, given it is a polycultural site.