The first part of my work is focused on the period before the onset of Rudolf II. Here I have outlined the status of the Bohemian kingdom, the position of non-Catholics in the Czech Republic and the struggle of Czech confession. To readers familiar to the political and religious situation, it is also important to familiarize yourself with education and power beginnings of Rudolf II. In the second part I tried to describe the course of the match the majesty and complications that accompanied him.

My job description included the religious and political situation in the Czech Republic since the second half of the 16th century to the White Mountain. For work, I use literature, dictionaries, and some published historical sources.
