I'd like to focus on providing wholesome summary on the creation, development and current state of European immigration policy using legislation, approved programs and coordinated activities of member countries.