

This purpose of this work is to verify the hypothesis that Czechoslovakian nation formed it's policy with Austria with the priority of political separation from Austria and treated economy and the safety of it's minority in Vienna as a less important issue.