

Book title: The basics of prosthetics

Objective: Provide basic information on the basics of prosthetics, amputation techniques, various types of prostheses and the basic rules of their structure. Book also describes walking technique when using prosthetics.

Method: The main source of writing the book was quality research method of data collection and empirical experience gained during thirty years of medical practice.

Keywords: amputation, prosthesis, vertical structure, protetometrie, walking with a prosthesis.