

Abstrakt v anglickém jazyce

This diploma thesis deals with analyzation of actual problems of computerization of insolvency proceeding. The main topics are publishing information in insolvency register, delivering through the data mailboxes and insolvency register and form and requirements of insolvency proposal. The main goal is to elaborate problems relating with computerization of insolvency proceeding, comparing differences between computerization of civil proceeding and insolvency proceeding and bringing solution of this problems.