

Abstract (in English):

Vítová Tereza. Gypsy children and youth in difficult position in Mladá Boleslav. Prague, 20014. 91 pages Extended essay. Charles University in Prague, Department of social work. Head of essay: Jaroslava Šťastná

Extended essay deals with gypsy children and youth in difficult life position in Mladá Boleslav. Theoretical part of essay is about history of gypsy nation, their social elimination, racism and discrimination, gypsy education in Czech republic, their adoption and about Gypsies in Mladá Boleslav. Target of empirical part of this essay was found out in which difficult life position gypsy children and youth are and if services of organizations in Mladá Boleslav dealing with this problems are sufficient for them. The essay can be helpful for workers who work with Gypsies and factual arrangement offering services for this target group. Experimental investigation is made by qualitative researching strategy. There are taking methods of analysis, synthesis, questionnaire and halfstructural dialogues of complementary analysis of documents.

