

Anotation

In this bachelor thesis, the student is going to deal with the intertextuality of the novel My Father's Notebook (2000) by Kader Abdolah. In the theoretical part, the notion of intertextuality and its components will be defined. In the analytical part, the student will thoroughly examine the text of the novel according to the suggested criteria and she will elucidate the reasons for the usage of the found intertexts.