

Bachelor thesis Foster care in practice of a non-profit organization monitors changes in the amended Act no. 359/1999 Coll. on social and legal protection of children related with foster care. In the introduction, the milestones in the history of foster care are mentioned. Afterwards, the thesis focuses on foster care and the way of safeguarding, funding and resourcing. It also mentions a legislative basis of foster care. It summarizes the rights and responsibilities of foster parents. The next section refers to the practice of a non-profit organisation of a Centre of help vulnerable children named ROSA, which accompanies families with children in foster care. By means of working methods and approaches used in the Centre of help vulnerable children ROSA evaluates specific course of accompanying of foster families and highlights examples of good practice.