

Abstract (in English):

The Bachelor Thesis Autobiographical motifs in the literary works of Jana Černá is dedicated to the life and work of the Czech writer Jana Černá. The author concentrates on the autobiographical motifs in the writer's works and compares them with archival sources. The paper contains also a short biography of Jana Černá which not only delivers new facts but also corrects inaccuracies present in previous publications about the writer. The author also focused on the issue of official works during years 1948-1969 in relation to Jana Černá's work. The paper is complimented by visual materials.
