

Abstract:

This work should introduce media influence on child's speech development and language and communication skills of children. Issue of media production are presented not only as a part of social and cultural environment, but also as an important factor determining child's speech, communication, cognitive ability and success at school or work. A critical view on the media technology in common use by children leads to proposals of how to prevent any potential negative effects media could have on the child users.