

Abstract (in English):

Bachelor thesis The Royal town of Kolín in the middle ages is contribution to issue of origins and development a royal town in the middle ages. The town of Kolín is aim of this thesis. On the basis of chronicles and monarch's deeds I describe the development, which was under way in the medieval town. The main part of thesis is about reasons for transpositions of towns on the territory of Czech and Moravia and draws a comparison between mural systems Kolin, Čáslav and Nymburk.