

Abstract

Title: Insurance products and their use in everyday life

Author: Zuzana Marková

Supervisor: PhDr. Milena Tichá, CSc.

Key words: insurance, pension insurance, pension company

Annotation:

The thesis describes insurance products focusing on the pension insurance. The first part deals with the term insurance and describes its various types. The other parts concentrate specifically on the pension insurance of Czech Republic. The thesis presents information about these products from the time of their implementation until present with main focus on the second and third pension pillars. It gives a thorough description of these two pillars supported with up-to-date information and the analysis of their possible future developments. The end of the thesis summarizes and evaluates the most important facts and data acquired from the survey on the use of these insurance products.