

In this project there are some problems after the Second world war – especially political, cultural and ethnic transformations in the years 1945 or 1946.

Other questions are solved in that project, which were not elaborated or very little. For example: František Rajman, who was the chairman of the city (1945 to 1946), perpetrated the suicide. The representation of the political parties in the government of the city and the district. In the attachment there are a lot of photos, tables, maps and articles.
