

ABSTRACT

Thesis: The food law in the Czech Republic and in the foreign countries

This thesis deals with the food law in the Czech Republic and other related topics. Its aim is presentation of the food law as a whole and particularly Czech legal regulation with its correlation with the law of European Union. The thesis further contains presentation of organic farming and selected food labelings as a topic related to the food law and at last presentation of legal regulation in France.

Key words: food law, organic production, France