

This master's thesis focuses on analysing the media image of the Parisian riots provided by two Czech countrywide daily newspapers, with a special emphasis on the way these events were presented and interpreted. It involves the examination of the following thematic units: 1. the reasons for riots, 2. the protesters and their life and attitudes, 3. the suburbs, their origin and ethnic structure, 4. Islam and Muslims.