

The abstract

This work deal with evaluation the social and spatial isolation in selected location. For resaerch were selected two different types of enviroment. City part of Pilsen – Doubravka and rural village – Pasečnice. This work researches the positives and negatives in their environment. The survey was conducted through a semi-structured dialogue which subjectively assesses the level of social and residential satisfaction in the the Down. Plzeň 4 – Doubravka and Pasečnice. The research is focused on social relationship, housing, primary shops, public services, traffic accessibility, leisure, and safety .

Key words: social isolation, residential satisfaction, seniors, city and country, public services