

The subject of this thesis is a comparison of sacral interiors of Karlstejn and St. Vitus Cathedral as liturgical spaces. This work is depicting development, liturgical activities and financing of Saint Vitus church (later cathedral) and the structure, liturgy, financing and functioning of the Karlstejn castle. The thesis compares these liturgical centres from various points of view.