

Title

Traitors or Victims?

Contribution to the mentality of the Czech resistance fighters in the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia.

Abstract

The thesis presents four resistance fighters from COM D's group in extreme situations. In these situations the thesis monitors their mentality. The term mentality refers to a way of thinking, which shows the behavior of the person concerned. Paratroopers of this group have not yet been given enough attention, work contributes to the detection of pre-war and post-war fates of paratroopers. Thesis offers, based on acquired information on the socio-demographic backgrounds, political orientation, and also on how a parachutist were handled by the Gestapo, comparing their behavior in crucial situations.

Keywords

III. illegal Central Committee of the Communist Party, the Gestapo, KOM D, an informer, mentality, resistance, paratrooper, Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia.