

Abstract:

The present thesis deals with an analysis of the direct and especially the indirect criticism of the duke and the duchess, the characteres of the second part of The Ingenious Gentleman Don Quixote of La Mancha, and it identifies the techniques to achieve that. A literary-scientific framework treating the mentioned issue is used for the analysis. Moreover it is supported by the quotations from the book in most cases.