

Abstract

The thesis analyzes institute of common debt discharge procedure of spouses. The whole procedure of debt discharge by highlighting the specifics of the debt discharge procedure of the community property is described. The thesis defines requirements of insolvency petition and the petition for permission of debt discharge. Attention is also paid to the conditions of admissibility of debt discharge, therefore the issue of (in)admissibility of debt discharge for entrepreneurs, assessment of bad faith and the minimum legal threshold of 30 % satisfaction of creditors' claims. The thesis also describes legislative changes that came into the force in 1st January 2014, namely the revision amendment of Insolvency Act and new Civil Code Act. Attention is also paid to issue of forum shopping and comparison of Slovak and Czech legal regulation of debt discharge procedure.