

Abstract

Title: Development of artificial courses for whitewater slalom

Objectives: The objective of this thesis is to describe artificial courses used for whitewater slalom and determine the different periods of their development

Methods: The diploma thesis is descriptively-analytic study
Searching and selecting various sources to analyze gathered informations and create conclusion of all collected knowledge

Results: Description of seventy one artificial courses used for whitewater slalom and chronological description of the developmental periods

Keywords: whitewater slalom, history of whitewater slalom, artificial whitewater course