School in narratives of parents to children in social exclusion

Nikola Syrovátková

ANNOTATION

The bachelor thesis is focused on School in narrative of parents to children in social exclusion. The theoretic part is divided into four chapters. The first chapter defines the characteristics of Roma family especially their parenting style. The second chapter is about intergenerational transmission. The next chapter is focused of the specifics of educating of Roma students. The last chapter talks about family narration. Another important part is the empirical research. The aim of our research is to find out what kind of family narration exist in families in social exclusion and then to confirm the importance of narration and continuity of the intergenerational transmission. The research results are summarised in the conclusion of the thesis.

KEYWORDS

School, narrative, social exclusion, family