

Abstract

During its whole existence, Green Mountain castle played an important role in the history of our country. At the opening part this bachelor's thesis describes and explains the methodology of work, than it is concerned with the oldest and also the later history of the castle. The principal part of the thesis affects the inflictions adherent to quite recent events that fatally touched the object in the course of the twentieth century. The social and political conversions that came in the twentieth century at the territory of our republic mirror clearly in the fate of the castle (birth of the Czechoslovakia, the World War II, the rise of the communist regime, the velvet revolution ...). In the end the work deals with an actual state of the Green Mountain.

Keywords: Green Mountain castle, Nepomuk, the Auerspergs, Black Barons, Army.