

Abstract

This bachelor work focuses on the analysis of the Reset policy in American-Russian relationships during 2009 – 2013. The aim of the work is to chronologically describe each event and analysis in order to find out answers for asked explorational questions.