Abstract

Title: Case Study of Physiotherapy Treatment of a Patient with the Diagnosis of Unilateral Below Knee Amputation

Aim: Summary of theoretical knowledge and processing of case report of a patient with the diagnosis of unilateral below knee amputation.

Summary: This thesis consists of two parts. The general part includes the knowledge related with topic amputations, prosthesis and rehabilitation.

The special part, case study of physiotherapy treatment of a patient with the unilateral below knee amputation, contains entrance kinesiological examination, the course of therapy and final evaluation of its effect.

Keywords: amputation, atherosclerosis, case report, physiotherapy, rehabilitation