This thesis The current political and social situation at the Ukraine from the perspective of Ukrainians and volhynia Czechs living in the Czech Republic discusses how the current Ukrainian crisis perceive its residents and compares the data to the perception of volhynia Czechs. The theoretical part is divided into three chapters, the first describes the history of volhynia Czechs and their reasons for leaving country, the way of living at Ukraine and the main reasons for re-emigration to the Czech Republic. The second chapter is aimed at the history of Ukraine and third describes the progression of the Ukrainian crisis that we can see today. Research in the practical section is based on a questionnaire, study of literature and interview.
