Abstract:
This thesis deals with the reflection of the parliamentary elections in October 2012 in Ukraine and the subsequent political development in the country within the Eastern Partnership Summit held on 28 and 29. 11. 2013 in Vilnius in Czech periodicals, namely the dailies Právo, Lidové noviny, Hospodářské noviny and MF DNES. We emphasize especially the preparatory process of negotiations, which should lead to the signing of the association agreement. The first part describes the brief summarization of the major events that in the Ukraine in the period occurred. The key part is dedicated to the approach of periodicals. The articles we have divided into two at the Chapter informative articles and reports and comments and analytical articles.