

Legal regulation of consumer credit in selected jurisdictions -

abstract

This master thesis is a comparative study of consumer credit regulation. Consumer credit regulation is compared in three different countries: the Czech Republic, Russia and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The distinctions between the Czech regulation on one hand, and Russian and British regulations on the other hand are analyzed and evaluated in terms of their reasonability. The conclusion summarizes the recommendations for optimization of the future consumer credit regulation.

Keywords

Consumer credit, annual percentage rate of charge, interest, consumer credit advertising, Russia, United Kingdom