

Significant pedagogues buried in Malostransky cemetery

Bachelor's thesis

Abstract

This bachelor's thesis deals with an investigation on significant pedagogues buried in the Malostransky cemetery. The thesis focuses on years 1786 - 1884, a period when the Malostranský cemetery was an official burial place for Hradčany, Malá Strana and Smíchov. Emphasis is placed on cultural and historical context of the Malostransky cemetery. The results of the thesis are biographies of the teachers and descriptions of their graves in a perspective of art history. The author's objective is to investigate on the topic using literature and archival sources. The thesis uses approaches of cultural geography, historical demography, genealogy, cultural history, art history and ethnology. The work is interdisciplinary and it can contribute to history of pedagogy and history of the Charles University.
