

: This work creates a comprehensive overview of foster care in the Czech Republic and focuses specifically on the issue of foster care and foster care temporarily.

The aim was to unite information about foster care and to define the differences between types of care, clarifying how they are under current legislation children to their families and placed explain the new system of preparation of foster parents.