

Artificial climbing walls in schools and leisure facilities

The aim of the work:

Comparison of the use of school walls and commercial facilities in the Czech Republic

A method:

The nature of work in the processing of us formulated goals allows you to use empirical methods of research, discussion and public inquiry.

Thesis topic, how to handle a certain attractiveness of the described properties directs the formulation interpretation essayistic character.

results:

The walls in the leisure and commercial facilities vary greatly from walls school. The largest differences were recorded in visitor numbers, opening hours, walls profiles, the number of holds and climbing organization on these walls.

Keywords:

Climbing wall, development, construction, design, safety equipment