

This thesis focuses on the complex of The festival cinema and hotel Thermal in Karlovy Vary especially in the historical and artistic context. The basic structure is divided in two fundamental parts – historical context and artistic context. The first one contains texts about history of locality and the story of how the komplex was built. The second one is made by texts about building, arts and description of how they collaborate.