

Abstract

The bachelor thesis „Innovative school from parents perspective: Scioškola case study“ deals with the way, how parents engage in educational policy as a stakeholder according to their strategies, which they make by choice of school and form of interactions between parents and Scioškola. It also tries to identify problems that parents met with. Generally this thesis answers, what reasons can lead parents to choose an innovative school on the case of Scioškola